Sound Healing Experiences

All of the traditions spoken of in the workshop flyer that are predicting a great shift of the Ages in 2012 have suggested the importance of preparing ourselves to be receptive to the newer high frequency energies that are streaming towards Mother Earth. This will enable the transition to be as graceful, non-destructive, and harmonious as possible. The more humanity prepares the easier the transition will be for us all.

These traditions all have creation myths.

These myths without exception speak of sound as the Creative Power.

Both aspects of sound, the subtle and the gross are powerful forces which may be used for creative or for destructive ends.

The subtle is the source of the gross. The unstruck sound (inaudible to the outer ear) produced the struck sound (audible to the outer ear). The unlit light (invisible to the outer eye) produced the lite light (visible to the outer eye).

Because there is a link between the subtle and the gross, we can use certain audible sounds to get to the inaudible sound (AUM; Hu; Ahbwoon).

The sounds¹ used in the workshop to accomplish this are:

The sound of the sacred Native American drum.

The sound of the Shruti Box.

The sound of the White Stone Carillon.

The sound of the Tibetan Bowl.

Call and Repeat Chanting

<http://www.bhagavandharma.org/Chant.htm> as well as Robert's Sound Healing Ebook and CD linked to below in footnote 1 will thoroughly describe the power and grace of chanting in a group to bring us into a natural and quite effortless meditative state, bringing ecstatic feeling to us as a bonus. This state will prepare you to receive the three initiations on offer on the deepest possible level.

¹ A full description of the use of these sacred instruments is provided in Robert's Ebook Riding the Wave of Sound to Ecstasy.

Movement Experiences

Yantra (sacred geometry) and Moving Meditations as well as morning yoga will keep the connective tissues of our bodymind flexible and receptive to the subtle energies that will be flooding into your being.

Initiations

“Life is a series of deeper and deeper initiations.” – Sufi Master Shems Tabriz (Guru of Rumi)

You will be experiencing the power and grace of three great initiations that will prepare you for 2012. Even if you have been initiated into any of these Rites or Initiations before you will still benefit by receiving them again. Repeated initiations will help you go deeper into the essence of the Rite or Initiation:

-  The Healers Rite of the Munay Ki.
-  The Yeshua Magdalene Initiation
-  The Oneness Blessing

Click on the Initiations link above for details about each of these sacred initiations on offer at your Preparation For 2012 workshop.

I hope to meet you in Darwin.

Infinite Sound Blessings,

Robert
