Up Front Opening

I penned this first issue of 2010 from the Pondicherry Ashram of Sri Aurobindo and the Mother. This is where my first meditation teacher was raised. Sri Chinmoy, after he was orphaned at the age of twelve, joined his brothers and sister and went to live at the Aurobindo ashram. While I was in India in Golden City spending 29 days with Sri Bhagavan and the dasas, I thought I would pay my first visit to Pondicherry which is only a 3 hour bus ride south. I am very happy I came for a visit. I will be returning home to Australia in 6 more days on 10th January 2010 and will probably email you notice of this newsletter sometime soon after I start functioning in the Adelaide mode on 14th of January.

I don't know if you know anything about Sri Aurobindo and the Mother. They both spent their lives bringing down the Superconscious Light into their bodies and onto the earth. Inspired by a vision of the Mother, there is a marvellous structure in the Auroville community that is about a half hour by bus outside Pondicherry. This is a huge 40 foot structure called Matrimandir (pictured to the left) that is a golden ball meditation shrine covered with 1400 golden spherical shields. It instantly reminded me of Sri Amma Bhagavan's golden ball of divine grace.

I have been at the Aurobindo Ashram since Christmas day and it is here that I have completed my new book entitled Yeshua Magdalena... the Greatest Love Story Never Told. It was the perfect setting, right on the ocean, surrounded and bathed in the supramental consciousness that the Mother and Sri Aurobindo brought down for humanities transformation.

I came to India based on a strong feeling that I had to be with Bhagavan. This feeling started making itself known in early November 2009. At that time I got no where with my email correspondence with Srinivas, the former dasa for Australia, and with Radhakrishna with whom I have always had a wonderful inner and outer connection. I had to make a decision on November 15 after getting no where with repeated emails over a two week period to purchase the only remaining seat on a plane leaving for India on the 24th of November, so I bought the ticket.

No one from the University website had returned my emails either so there was no one who knew I was coming. My friend Hileah from Hawaii started emailing me around November 15 asking me if I knew what was going on in Golden City. I said no, I have no idea. On November 16th I discovered Bhagavan's message on Facebook. I transcribed it and sent it to Hileah (and others). I started watching and listening to the skype darshans that Bhagavan was having with various groups around the world... in Russia, in Italy, and in Sweden.

I called up Lisa Cassetta and she told me that the Acharyas and many dasas had left Sri Amma Bhagavan to do their own thing, which I had just found out the day before. I told her that I was leaving for India soon and that I had not been able to contact anyone to let them know. Based on what Bhagavan had shared in his Skype darshans I now thought I could do a Level III training with him while I was in India. This proved not to be true and the first Level III trainings in India will perhaps begin in March 2010. I flew to India on Nov 24 and landed at Chennai very early on the 26th, and got a cab to GC 2. Right before I left I had finally reached GC through a man who was running the UK website that Sri Bhagavan was now using to communicate directly with the world. At least Vikram dasa and Ananda dasa now knew I was coming.

I'm sure you know by now that Bhagavan is now offering all trainings free of charge (you pay a $25USD registration fee). Money will be coming in to keep things running through room and board. I was able to retake Level II with a group from China, Hong Kong, and Malaysia.

There were two other Westerners in the group, a man Garik from San Francisco and a woman from Germany. There was a Level I training going on at the same time with mostly Chinese and Malaysians and there were 4 people from Australia in that Level I group.

Every Sunday I got to go to the magnificently beautiful Oneness Temple where there was a live skype darshan with Bhagavan. Bhagavan was able to see into the audience. On his second Sunday darshan I was able to sit right up front and as soon as Bhagavan came on the screen our eyes locked into each other for two minutes or so. It was the highlight of my journey! The other highlight was the group darshan our Level II group and the Level I group had with Bhagavan. Here Bhagavan was physically present and I got to ask him a question on 2012. His answer is reported in my first 2012 report of the 2010 New Year.

My dream for 2010 is found on my website at <http://www.bhagavandharma.org/2010.htm>.

Do ENJOY your January/February issue of my Flowering of the Heart Newsletter and REMEMBER, the Golden Age is right around the corner... so keep the faith (I know it seems difficult at times), stick in there, get the help and support you need, eat good food, take walks in nature, jump in the ocean, pray, love, trust, and keep good company. Peace be with you dear One!

IMPORTANT NEWS ON ONENESS

If you have not already heard:

Please watch Sri Bhagavan on Facebook to gain a clear vision on how the Oneness Movement is to proceed forward from November 16, 2009 onward.

As I have gotten feedback that videos are not accessible or have been taken down and just in case you can't see and hear Bhagavan deliver this message I have received a transcript of his words and confirmed them while watching the video... the following is what Bhagavan shared, word for word:

This is a transcript from Bhagavan's video on Facebook, November 16, 2009.

"I Bhagavan, in deep distress and pain, have to break this sad news to you.

Krishna, the three senior guides, Anandagiri, Samadarshini, and Vimalakirti, and the over-seas guides have broken away from the Oneness Movement.

They have neither sought my permission, nor do they have my blessings, and have done this against my wishes. While claiming to be with AmmaBhagavan, they are doing things not in line with our thinking.

This is a grave set-back for our mission of 2012.

What AmmaBhagavan want are the following:

1. All courses must be made either free or charged only to the extent of covering the expenses. The movement should not make any profit through its courses or any of its activities. Money and spirituality do not go well together and eventually Oneness would be destroyed.
2. The Oneness trainers must themselves be trained to conduct the Living in Oneness programs, and the Level I and Level II programs in their respective countries. The senior guides and the other guides must only be involved in training the trainers and not conducting the courses themselves. All the remittances collected should only be shared between the trainers and their local body in order to promote the work. No part of it should go to any other body and used for personal benefit. This would prevent it from becoming a money making cult.
3. Any body wanting to meet us should have direct access to us and there should be no intermediaries and conditions attached. People should have easy and free access to us. This way we could help them grow rapidly.
4. After the passing away of AmmaBhagavan there should be neither a successor nor successors and no organized spiritual structure left behind. This would prevent it from becoming another cult. Let Oneness live in the hearts of millions of people and not in an organized structure of hierarchies. Man has been repeating this mistake time and again.
5. Our vision has always been to set man totally and unconditionally free. Let not Oneness yet again bind millions of people through its structures, through its hierarchies, and through money making activities.

Help me to keep this vision alive."

2010 started for me in India as I completed a 46 day retreat at two Ashrams.

I spent 29 days with Sri Amma Bhagavan mostly at the Oneness Temple, also referred to as The World Oneness Centre.

Sri Bhagavan is now doing a tremendous number of Live Skype Videoconferences all around the world. Every Sunday he does a Live Skype silent meditation at the Oneness temple around 9:30am. In his Skype Conferences/Meditations Bhagavan can see the audience and so he can interact with individuals as he so chooses.

Bhagavan was so powerfully focused at his darshans and with his Skype interactions. He is asking each of the Oneness Blessing givers whose heart's desire is Oneness, to step up to the plate and play their role in bringing this new consciousness of oneness to our Mother Earth.

As you might already know, Bhagavan has re-established his original vision and is offering all courses FREE of charge (there is a small registration fee). This includes Level I, Level II, Level III and the Trainer's courses.

Level III is new and it involves direct interaction with Sri AmmaBhagavan, either through Skype or in a group in India.

The Trainers courses will prepare those who desire, with the power and ability to initiate people into Oneness.

A Flowering of the Heart Article Section

This month I thought that I would start the year off in this section with an unusual topic that might not on its surface seem related to a flowering of the heart. However when I first read this article and as I have continued to re-read it, I know that it has created a flowering in my heart in regard to a topic that is the bread and butter of existence and the number one commodity on the planet.

May each of us have a Happy and Prosperous New Year, 2010. May this New Year bring each of us into the divine Abundance the Mother desires for us. And may we be guided, molded, directed, shaped and blessed with Her Power and Purpose to restore the Reality of Oneness on our sacred Mother earth. So Be It! This article was written by Sri Aurobindo and is found in his highly recommended short work entitled The Mother.

Money

Money is the visible sign of a universal force, and this force in its manifestation on earth works on the vital and physical planes and is indispensable to the fullness of the outer life.

In its origin and its action it belongs to the Divine. But like other powers of the Divine it is delegated here and in the ignorance of the lower nature can be usurped for the use of the ego or held by Asuric¹ influences and perverted to their purpose.

This is indeed one of the three forces - power, wealth, sex - that have the strongest attraction for the human ego and the Asura and are most generally misheld and misused by those who retain them.

The seekers or keepers of wealth are more often possessed than its possessor; few escape entirely a certain distorting influence stamped on it by its long seizure and perversion by the Asura. For this reason most spiritual disciplines insist on a complete self-control, detachment, and renunciation of all bondage to wealth and of all personal and egoistic desire for its possession. Some even put a ban on money and riches and proclaim poverty and bareness of life as the only spiritual condition.

But this is an error; it leaves the power in the hands of hostile forces. To reconquer it for the Divine to whom it belongs and use it divinely for the divine life is the supramental way for the Sadhaka (spiritual seeker).

You must neither turn with an ascetic shrinking from the money power, the means it gives, and the objects it brings, nor cherish a rajasic attachment to them or a spirit of enslaving self-indulgence in their gratification.

Regard wealth simply as a power to be won back for the Mother and placed at her service.

All wealth belongs to the Divine and those who hold it are trustees, not possessors. It is with them today, tomorrow it may be elsewhere. All depends on the way they discharge their trust while it is with them, in what spirit, with what consciousness in their use of it, and to what purpose they put it.

¹ Asuras are beings who work in the lower astral realms and desire to negatively influence and usurp the manifestation of divine oneness by controlling, dominating, and manipulating the forces of the earth plane. They work with and through those human beings who allow and give free expression to their own lust, greed, hatred, violence, and desire for power and control.

In your personal use of money look on all you have or get or bring as the Mother's. Make no demand but accept what you receive from her and use it for the purpose for which it is given to you. Be entirely selfless, entirely scrupulous, exact, careful in detail, a good trustee; always consider that it is her possession and not your own that you are handling.

On the other hand, what you receive for her lay religiously before her; turn nothing to your own or anybody else's purpose.

Do not look up to men or women because of their riches or allow yourself to be impressed by the show, the power, or the influence. When you ask for the Mother, you must feel that it is she who is demanding through you a very little of what belongs to her and the man from whom you ask will be judged by his response.

If you are free from the money-taint and without any ascetic withdrawal, you will have a greater power to command the money for the divine work. Equality of mind, absence of demand, and the full dedication of all you possess and receive and all your power of acquisition to the Divine Shakti and her work are the signs of this freedom.

Any perturbation of mind with regard to money and its use, any claim, any grudging is a sure index of some imperfection or bondage.

The ideal Sadhaka in this kind is one who if required to live poorly can so live and no sense of want will affect her or interfere with the full play of the divine consciousness, and if he is required to live richly, can so live and never for a moment fall into desire or attachment to her wealth or to the things that she uses or servitude to self-indulgence, or a weak bondage to the habits that the possession of riches creates.

The divine Will is all for him and for her, and the divine Ananda.

In the supramental creation the money-force has to be restored to the Divine Power and used for a true and beautiful and harmonious equipment and ordering of a new divinised vital and physical existence in whatever way the Divine Mother herself decides in her creative vision.

But first it must be conquered back for her. Those will be the strongest for the conquest who are in this part of their nature strong and large and free from ego and surrendered without any claim or withholding or hesitation, pure and powerful channels for the Supreme Puissance.

Product Specials Section

I have updated three of my 13 EBooks and added a NEW one:

1. Yeshua Magdalena, the Greatest Love Story Never Told.

This is currently in the form of an Ebook and a CD which contains my Ebook along with 3601 other pages of exciting and cutting edge wisdom from the Gnostic and Magdalene Goddess Traditions. This Gnostic and Goddess wisdom has been emerging on our Mother earth, very slowly starting in 1882 and beginning to avalanche since the release of Holy Blood, Holy Grail in 1982. If you love the Goddess... if you love Yeshua (Jesus) you will love my new Ebook. I do recommend the CD version as you also get eleven+ years of my research and experience since beginning my journey of discovery of the real Yeshua and the Magdalene in the south of France in April 1999.

As an Ebook is $15USD (emailed to you as a pdf document).

As a CD with 3601 pages of added Yeshua Magdalene research and added bonus books and music is $30USD (includes S&H).

Mystical French Adventure June 18-25, 2010

Madeline and child holding the Golden Ball of Divine Grace

The year 2010 might be the last opportunity for a while to immerse yourself in the sacred mysteries of the Languedoc.

Life is an amazing mystery. When I take the time to acknowledge and reflect on the grace that has blessed my life I am thrilled to the core of my being.

It is often difficult to believe in a miraculous turn of events that is unfolding in the inner world. With fear being broadcast every hour by the major media it is time to turn off the fear-mongers and pray and meditate, chant and sing, have fun, enjoy time with your friends and with Nature.

As a child up until the age of 15 or so I was always connected to the oneness of nature... running free. Then the harsh nature of the ancient mind crept in more and more as I watched people living in separation work to their own personal advantage at the expense of their fellow man.

I bit strongly on the apple from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Being a sensitive little bugger, it was very upsetting to my tender heart to watch this.

I saw the problem and it almost killed me.

Now I know the solution and I pray and work for it to manifest every day.

The solution is revealed at the altar of the divine in the church in Montsegur, as pictured above. There is a close up on my Yeshua Magdalene CD.

The divine Mother (Mary Magdalene) is pictured with her son John (the Beloved disciple) and they are both holding the golden ball of divine Grace in their hand.

This golden ball of divine Grace is transmitted into the energy field of the recipients of the Oneness Blessing. This blessing then works its mystical magic to change the way the brain and endocrine glands work. It quiets the centers of separation and fight or flight in the parietal lobes and brain stem and activates the centers of love, joy and oneness in our frontal cortex.

All healing and effective energy work does this same thing to varying degrees or at least prepares the body to receive the Oneness Blessing, and the Yeshua/Magdalene initiation. The Nine Rites of the Munay Ki work to the same end. The Yeshua/Magdalene initiation works to the same end.

The miraculous turn of events that will sweep over the consciousness of humanity as we head to 2012 will be the awakening of the consciousness of humanity to the divinity of man.

All of our sacred site tours² are dedicated to this end.

² We are planning on a 2010 tour to the Fez Music Festival in Morocco, the Mystical French Adventure, and an Infinite Light Tour of Mother India

2012

Welcome to my newest section of the Flowering of the Heart newsletter. In this section I will be reporting on the Shift of the Ages that has been independently spoken about and prophesized by many different individuals and cultures over millennia. The Hopi, the Kahunas, the Mayans, the Incas, the Aborigines, Sri Krishna, Sri Bhagavan, Sri Aurobindo and the Mother, and others have all made statements foretelling the fabulous times ahead.

From www.timeofthesixthsun.com:

The Hopi - predict a 25yr period of purification followed by End of Fourth World and beginning of the Fifth.

Mayans - Call it the end days or the end of time as we know it.

Maoris - Say that as the veils dissolve there will be a merging of the physical & spiritual worlds.

Zulu - Believe that the whole world will be turned upside down.

Hindus - Kali Yuga (end time of man). The Coming of Kalki & critical mass of Enlightened Ones.

Incas - Call it the Age of Meeting Ourselves Again.

Aztec - Call this the Time of the Sixth Sun. A time of transformation. Creation of new race.

Dogon - Say that the spaceship of the visitors, the Nommo, will return in the form of a blue star

Pueblo - Acknowledge it'll be the emergence into the Fifth World

Cherokee - Their ancient calendar ends exactly at 2012 as does the Mayan calendar.

Tibetan - Kalachakra teachings are prophesies left by Buddha predicting Coming of the Golden Age.

Egypt - According to the Great Pyramid (stone calendar), present time cycle ends in year 2012 AD.

Bhagavan on 2012

From a skype darshan with Dubai, December 11, 2009.

This great transformation is possible in the month of December 2012 for the simple reason that three great cycles are coinciding. We have a 5000 year old cycle which started at the end of the Mahabharata war. That cycle would be closing in the year 2012. We also have a 26,400 year cycle which begins with the Mahayuga cycle. All the four yugas happened in that timeframe. That cycle also is closing in the year 2012. And then we have a 650,000 year cycle, the most massive cycle, which also is closing in the year 2012. So it's a very rare phenomenon that these three cycles are closing in the year 2012.

Not only that; in 2012, according to revelations, and according to certain other very ancient calculations, Dec 2012 is the midpoint of the Universe. This Universe began from a small, infinite, resemblant thought (bindu). That was the beginning of this Universe, much smaller than even an individual electron. So small was the Universe in the beginning and the Universe has now grown to this stage. The Universe is now middle aged and its lifetime now is another 13.7 billion years as the cycle closes. That is supposed to be one day for Brahma and a thousand days for Brahma is equal to one day for Vishnu, and a thousand days for Vishnu is equal to one day for Shiva, and a thousand days for Shiva is equal to one day for Shakti.

Now we are going to enter the midpoint of Brahma's day. Now what is understood by this is, the Universe which was a single, little, infinitely small thought has grown up to this size. The One has become the many. Not that it has become the many, it appears as the many, and this beautiful creation has moved to this point. It's like building a home and then you do a sacred ceremony (grahapravesham) before you enter your new home and then you enter the home. So this is like a grahapravesham for the whole of humanity in the year 2012 and then we are going to enter a totally new age; so all this work we have been doing is about entering this new age.

Now when this new age comes, what happens is, there's a change in pranic energies, which is what is responsible for a change in human consciousness, which is responsible for a change in human perception, which is responsible for the way humans experience reality.

Reality would remain the same, but the way we experience reality would be vastly different. When you experience it differently, you will discover Heaven on Earth. That is what is going to happen.

But then, you wait for the rains, when the rains do come, you can not keep quiet; you have to plough the soil and sow the seeds, do all these things. So this is like the rains coming in, the new age coming in, and the new energies coming in. But then, we have to work for it. Without working, you're not going to get anywhere. And what is the work? We must raise our levels to higher states of consciousness and this is possible because of these energy changes. And how do we do it? We must become powerful blessing givers. That's the way to do it.

Group darshan in GC with Bhagavan on December 17, 2009:

I asked, "Bhagavan, please share your current vision about 2012." My question was asked along with Tai's question who is now a new OB giver in Melbourne. He was here taking Level I and later that evening was initiated as a deeksha giver. Tai made a statement. "Many great Masters have come to try to elevate the consciousness of the people. Buddha, Christ, and Mohammed but the planet has stayed the same with wars, violence, and all kinds of problems. What makes it different now with you here?"

Bhagavan shares that these Masters have prepared the soil. They have gotten humanity ready for a bumper crop of blessings. But in their time the rains did not come. Now the rains are coming and the soil has been cultivated and the seeds have been sown.

Planets are aligning... the central sun and moon. The Mayans and the south Indians are related... they are connected. Both use the word Kundalini and both have a similar word for the central sun... the center of the galaxy. (Bhagavan did not mention this word but the Mayans call it Hunab Ku).

To my question Bhagavan shared the following (to paraphrase):

Ancient Indian texts talk about the creation of the Universe and the time we are now in. The Universe started as a single point called the bindu. It expanded from that point to where it is now. It is nearly in its half way point which according to these ancient texts will occur in late 2011. The half way point represents 13.7 billion years of evolution. It will continue evolving another 13.7 billion years then return back to the bindu. About the bindu much is known but Bhagavan did not share about that now. Thus the current larger cycle will be 27.4 billion years. The Mayans say this half way point will be reached in December 2012. It took 13.7 billion years to build the house... through the cave man, through Neanderthal man, and now Homo erectus or Homo sapiens. The time is now to live in the house. We have just been existing. Now we are getting ready to live. My revelation says the time will be 2012. Not just me alone but others as well.

Three major cycles are soon coming together. The 5000 year (associated with Krishna and the battle of Kurukshetra) cycle. The 26,400 year (Egyptian, as well as associated with the Mahayuga cycle) cycle and the 650,000 year cycle.

There is a one thousand year old temple in India that shows the history of the earth's people and what will transpire in 2012. Right before the golden age has dawned, it shows that a Chinese figure will be prominently emerging. The Chinese nation will play a very important role. It will become the most powerful nation on earth. Now, I don't need to say what will happen if the consciousness does not rise. You (talking to the many Chinese people present) have a very important job to do to help raise the consciousness of the Chinese people.

In 2011 and 2012 and thereafter, energies will be made available for humanity to grow rapidly into oneness.

That is the importance of our mission to prepare people for 2012 and beyond and to set man totally and unconditionally free.

Sri Aurobindo and the Mother

On the 5th of December 1950, Sri Aurobindo left his physical frame in order to carry out his works from a subtler plane and after his departure, the Mind of Light got realised in the body of the Mother. The Master left his mortal body but reminded his devotees of the prophecy he had made in Savitri:

A mightier race shall inhabit the mortal's world...
The superman shall reign as king of life,
Make earth almost the mate and peer of heaven,
And lead towards God and truth man's ignorant heart
And lift towards godhead his mortality...
The supermind shall claim the world for Light
And thrill with love of God the enamoured heart
And place Light's crown on Nature's lifted head
And found Light's reign on her unshaking base.

(Savitri, pp.706-07)

Now it was the Mother's task to fulfil the yoga of the supramental descent and transformation which she did and eventually on the 29th of February 1956, the much awaited manifestation of the Supramental occurred followed by the realisation of Overman³ that was accomplished in 1958 and on the 1st of January 1969, she brought down the Overman Consciousness. The task she had accepted was fulfilled; it reminded her devotees of her prayer (29/02/1956):

Lord, Thou hast willed, and I execute:
A new light breaks upon the earth,
A new world is born.
The things that were promised are fulfilled. - (CWM, Vol. 15, p. 95)

And on the 24th of April 1956, the Mother declared:

The manifestation of the Supramental upon the earth is no more a promise but a living fact, a reality. It is at work here, and one day will come when the most blind, the most unconscious, even the most unwilling shall be obliged to recognise it. - (CWM, Vol. 15, p. 96)

Till next time...

In Oneness, Health, Love, Light, Peace, Abundance, and Infinite Blessings,

Robert

³ The Overman is the human being who has been blessed with the consciousness of the Overmind. The Overmind is a transitional step leading to the Supermind. By bringing down the Overmind the Mother was helping humanity evolve more quickly by providing a bridge to the Supramental or Superconscious state.
