Pictorial History Mystical French Adventure June 18-25, 2009

Before the Adventure began I got to spend some time with a very remarkable woman... Bridget Lytton-Minor. Bridget was one of the founders of La Val Dieu and has been a Yoga teacher for over 50 years. She currently lives in Quillon, about 25 minutes from La Val Dieu.

Bridget brought me to the Angel Sanctuary in the mountains above Alet les Bains and introduced me to Lorrie and Eugene, the two beautiful beings from Ireland who run the Sanctuary in France. The group got to meet Bridget this year when she graciously led one of our early morning Yoga classes.

Also before the 2009 Adventure began I finally got the chance to meet live and in person another remarkable woman Anneke Koremans, who along with her husband Peter van Deursen, run a tourist company in the south of France. Anneke and I had been in email communication with each other centered around my Mystical French Adventure for about 6 or 7 years before we met this year. Anneke is a long time Rosicrucian and is very knowledgeable about the sacred Celtic, Gnostic, and Cathar history of the Languedoc. Anneke is pictured above playing a Tibetan bowl while we both meditate at the vibrating rocks in the woods above the Throne of Isis. Peter and Anneke received the Oneness Blessing from me on the Throne of Isis right after we had meditated at the Vibrating Rock.

Without me saying anything to her about the Oneness Blessing, Anneke quite perceptively picked up on the connection between the Oneness Blessing and the 2000 year old energies of the sacred Avataric couple, Sri Isha (Yeshua) and his beloved Christ Sophia, Mary Magdalene. Peter, who is not outwardly into spiritual practice, had an experience of entering a space where his mind slowed down and he was filled with a sense of quiet oneness with Nature.

Anneke kindly shared in a recent email to me:

The Languedoc is a very special place. Here, the ancient values and powers of Apollo's beloved Hyperborea (Iberia) are still present. Here, I learn to become calm and in harmony. And I meet wonderful people, like you! Even Peter was impressed, and he is very down to earth... grin... He is very fond of you. And that makes two of us.

We started out at 5 pm on the 18th of June with an orientation in Bridget's Yoga studio at La Val Dieu. This year on the sacred site tour and energy healing seminar there was a lovely family from Vancouver Canada, Marc and Carol-Anne Sandercombe and their daughter Amanda. There was Sherrie Bragg who was the first participant to sign up this year from New South Wales in Australia. There was Wai Ching Lee, a medical doctor from Malaysia. And last but not least there was Catherine Burton from Dublin Ireland. Catherine and I had met 9 years previously when I had led an Anointment Healing seminar at Chrysalis in County Wicklow Ireland.

I'll relate a quick and interesting story here about Catherine. About one or two years before the MFA 2009, Catherine had tried to visit the Angel Sanctuary which was then located in County Wicklow. She got to the place it was supposed to be and lo and behold it had shut its doors and moved to the south of France. Because I had not previously known about the Angel Sanctuary till I got to Bridget's in Quillan, a visit to it was not planned in the schedule for the course. However as soon as Bridget and I visited before the MFA was to start, I knew that I wanted to bring the group there, and so a visit was scheduled to replace going to La Cite in Carcassonne. Catherine was thrilled of course when she got to meet Laurrie and Eugene in the south of France.

During the orientation I shared with the group that the region where we were, the Languedoc, was filled with the divine energies of the Goddess and that the divine Mother, in whatever form she was treasured and invoked, was very quick to answer the heart felt prayers of the individual on any and all levels of request... physical, financial, relational, spiritual. Ask for what you want at La Val Dieu... the Valley of God... and the Mother would grant your request.

This year, one of the participants, Carol-Anne Sandercombe, had been through the Oneness Blessing process, both Level I and Level II in India. She was a Oneness Blessing giver, like myself. I asked Carol-Anne if she would join me in giving the Oneness Blessing to the group and she graciously and joyfully said yes.

After Orientation we headed off for our first sacred site hike up to La Pique, an easy hike up a plateau right behind La Val Dieu. In 2007, one of the tour's participants had a brief encounter with Mary Magdalene on La Pique. It's quite a powerful and sacred place. From the peak there is a wonderful view of the enigmatic Rennes le Chateau and a great view back at La Val Dieu with Mt Bugarach in the background. Mt Bugarach has had the most UFO sittings of any place in France and we later visited Bugarach for an incredibly wonderful solstice ceremony with 9 quartz crystal bowls and a didgeridoo.

We closed our first day with the group's first Oneness Blessing and headed off to bed.

At the first morning's yoga, meditation, and chant session we started learning the Magdalene song in preparation for Moon-days Yeshua/Magdalene God/Goddess Initiation on the Throne of Isis. It is important to prepare for these sacred initiations and we have been preparing for many lifetimes.

In the Gnostic tradition, Christ the Logos, as embodied and represented by Sri Isha or Yeshua came to the planet with Christ the Sophia, as embodied and represented by Mary Magdalena.

In the tradition of the Avatars of Mother India, the Avatar often comes to earth with his feminine counterpart.

Rama came with Sita. Krishna came with Radha. Buddha came with Yashodhara. Chaitanya came with Lakshmi. Shiva came with Parvati. Ramakrishna came with Sarada Devi. And now Bhagavan has come with Amma Padmavati.

After breakfast, the participants received their first Munay Ki Rite... the initiation known as the Healers Rite. During the Healers Rite, seeds of light and activated consciousness are placed into the Hara, Heart and Third Eye of the recipient giving them the power to heal themselves and others through the Power to Manifest (Hara), the Power to Love (Heart), and the Power to Vision (Third Eye). Healing, of course, depends primarily on the flowering and development of these powers in the body-heart-mind-soul of the practitioner. These powers are held and symbolized by:

Jaguar – Power to Manifest

Eagle/Condor – Power to Love

Quetzalcoatl – Power to Vision

After lunch we had our first Anointment Healing™ lesson. I first started putting together AH in 1990 while I was running my school of Vibrational Healing and Massage in Santa Fe New Mexico. As the Sufis say they do, I took the best of what I had previously learned over the previous 20 years in the natural healing world and put it together as the healing form known as Anointment

Healing. I chose the name primarily for three reasons. The main reason was that the Magdalene had anointed the head, body, and feet of the Avatar or Prophet Yeshua with the precious oil Spikenard, preparing him for the full flowering of his Christhood. Another reason was that I was a lover of using pure essential oils in my healing practice, since the days of my naturopathic training as guided by Dr Jay Victor Scherer. I was particularly fond of pure Indian Mysore sandalwood oil which Dr Scherer taught had the capacity to balance brain hemispheres, right and left as well as front and back.

And I was a lover of Juniper oil which we used every week when we blew the Peruvian Whistling vessels together at Dr Scherer's house. And finally I was an initiate in the Chisti Sufi Order out of Egypt and loved the Sufi story of creation that relates that God first created the soul of the Prophet before the rest of the creation so that creation would always be guided back to the Creator through the Grace of the Prophet. The soul of the prophet was soooooo hot that it started to sweat and a drop of sweat from the soul of the prophet created the soul of the Rose. Rose has always been way up there on my list of favorite essential oils. Now spiritually I understand why.

After dinner we had a Magdalene Orientation in the Yoga studio. As you probably are already aware of, the Magdalene is making a revival in the Age of Aquarius. Having been a student of Gnosticism since an encounter with Yeshua when I was 15 years old, I have been driven to know the real Master, Christ the Logos.

I recommend the Akashic record readings of Edgar Cayce and Levi and now the writings of Stuart Wilson and Joanna Prentis as well as the works of Tau Malachi. L. Shannon Andersen, Margaret Starbird and Matthew Fox, Richard Presser and Carolyn Evers, Clare Heartsong, and many others now have also helped us all connect more deeply with Christ the Sophia, as exemplified and embodied by Mary Magdalena, and Christ the Logos, as exemplified and embodied by Lord Yeshua known as Sri Isha in India.

We sang the Magdalene song and Sri Amma requested that I do a special Oneness Blessing to prepare us all for the Yeshua/Magdalene Initiation on the Throne of Isis.

On Saturday we spent the whole day learning Anointment Healing and profound blessings were delivered through Grace through each of our efforts with Anointment Healing practiced on each other.

We had a very full day on Sunday with a trip to the market at Esperaza and a wonderful Magdalene Blessing at the Magdalene source at Rennes le Bain. Before the Magdalene blessing we visited the heart of the inner circle of the Mother Goddess energies at the ancient Celtic initiation grounds where the salty water meets the sweet water and then we hiked to the Lovers falls. The Languedoc Flower essence Blue Gromwell shown above is significant here as it is from the same area... an area where many had visions of the Magdalene in 2007 and before.

In the Languedoc Flower Essence System, Blue Gromwell is called Let Go and Surrender. Here follows its catalogue description:

Helps us let go and surrender wholly and completely to the divine infinite flow of spirit. It is not about disintegration; it is about yielding and allowing oneself to flow, like water. Helps free us, and helps dissolve rigidity in mind & body. Brings about balance for those who need to move into the feminine aspect of themselves. Helps to relax muscles, release tension & calm our intestinal tract.

Monday was another very full day. After giving the Bands of Power Munay Ki Rite we went to Rennes-le-Château where we had the privilege of spending time with Henry Lincoln and with Ingrid Ridel-Karp who was the partner of Graham Simmans. Ingrid completed Grahams last book after his passing. Ingrid kindly autographed copies of Jesus After the Crucifixion for the group. Henry gave us a very entertaining lesson about the nature of faith and he later autographed Wai Ching's copy of his latest book entitled Key to the Sacred Pattern... the Untold Story of Rennes-le- Château.

Later that day we had our Yeshua/Magdalene God/Goddess initiation at the Throne of Isis. The God's were with us as our over one hour long ceremony was not interrupted by other visitors to this now very popular sacred site. Thankyou Yeshua and the Magdalene. Thank you Sri Amma Bhagavan.

Another energy took over, the energy of Grace, as six new Yeshua/Magdalene Priests and Priestesses were birthed in the Love Light of this sacred Avataric couple, Christ the Sophia and Christ the Logos.

Dear Ones, call on them anytime, their Grace is always present:

After the initiation we went for a wonderful outdoor bathing experience at the hot waters coming out of the rocks at Rennes les Bains. This has always been one of my favorite experiences while in France.

On Tuesday we went to the last Cathar stronghold at Montsegur. The strongest hike of the journey was later rewarded with a magnificent vision of the Black Madonna through the Grace of the divine operating through the actions of Wai Ching who found the lady with the key to open the Church at Montsegur.

This particular Black Madonna with child is from Spain and shows Mary Magdalene with what appears to be a male child and both of them are holding gold balls of light in one of their hands.

The Gold Ball of divine Grace has particular significance for those who have had the privilege of meeting Sri Amma and Sri Bhagavan.

And for me, as the author of a book entitled Bringers of the Gold Ball, and as one who was fortunate enough to have had a private darshan (blessingful meeting) with Sri Bhagavan during which he told me that his deeksha (oneness Blessing) was the same deeksha that Christ was giving when he was with us 2000 years ago.

Seeing the gold ball of divine light in the hands of the Magdalene and her child has a special significance for me now. It reminds me of Sophie, who it is implied is deeply connected to the Yeshua Magdalene lineage, giving what looks like a Oneness Blessing (deeksha) to Tom Hank's character in the Da Vinci Code. See <http://www.bhagavandharma.org/France.htm#DaVinci> for the image.

Another interesting image from the ceiling of the Montsegur Church is Hebrew letters inside a triangle in the middle of a circle:

All participants received the Munay Ki Harmony Rite before starting our Montsejur journey.

On Wednesday we went to the Angel Sanctuary where we meditated on all the wonderful angel paintings and writings done by Lorrie Coffey. Lorrie first introduced herself to us and told us the story of how she had come to have the experiences where Heaven opened up its doors to her.

After enjoying lunch at the Sanctuary we went up to the fountain and everyone received the final Seers Munay Ki Rite of the Laika lineage.

Then we visited the Sanctuary store where Lorrie's book and paintings were available for purchase.

Her book is beautiful and it is filled with her paintings and many messages she has received. Truly inspirational and soul elevating these paintings and messages speak directly to the angelic presence within us that is freely available to guide each of our lives.

To top off this incredibly uplifting day we went to a church past Bugarach on the way to the George de Galamous and listened to the angelic voice and beautiful harp music of Erik Berglund.

Next morning we had our graduation ceremony, enjoyed our last breakfast with each other and departed La Val Dieu heading out to the next part of our individual adventures in life.

Thank you dear ones for making this the most harmonious, soul elevating, magical, mystical, easy, grace-filled adventure that I have yet experienced in the Yeshua/Magdalene infused Languedoc.

A Ho Mitakuye Oyasin ... to all my beautiful relations... the stone people, the plant people, the two leggeds, the four leggeds, the furred, the feathered, the creepy crawlers, the finned, the soil, water, air and ethers through which we all move, Gaia (Pacha Mamma), Father Sun, Grandmother Moon, the angels and archangels, the Laika shamans and shamunkas, the Mystics, Seers, Prophets, Avatars of all times, the Ancient Ones and Great Spirit, Hu, Allah, Allaha, the One, God, Goddess, and That which has no name. I love you all. Robert March, Crafers West Australia.
