Dedication

This book is dedicated to the highest truth and to love. It is dedicated to my teachers and loved ones, and to all souls who have dedicated their own lives to manifesting oneness on the planet in whatever way their heart has guided them. Truth has compassion for ego. Truth shines like the sun on all beings despite their beliefs and conditionings, and despite their actions. Truth stands firm and it is beyond our perception of the facts. Truth falls like the rain on both saint and sinner alike and quenches every one's thirst without asking whether they deserve this blessing or not. As Mother India has proclaimed: 'Truth alone triumphs and not Untruth'.

On mother earth presently truth is not in the fact but it is only in the perception of the fact. It is like the story of the elephant and four blind men. These men were put in front of an elephant and were asked to describe the elephant. One blind man grabbed the elephant's trunk and described the elephant like a big hose. Another blind man got hold of a leg and described the elephant like a tree trunk. A third blind man grabbed the tail and described the elephant like a snake. The fourth blind man grabbed the elephant's ear and described the elephant like a huge triangular plant frond.

We are all blind to the highest truth until Grace presents it to us or more accurately makes us into itself. For us truth is not in the fact but only exists in our perception of the fact. So depending on our cultural bias, depending on our upbringing, depending on our beliefs, depending on our education, we all perceive reality in a different way.

If you are a keen student of history you will know that more people have been killed in the name of religion and so-called religious truth, than have died in any of the world wars, gulf wars, or any other military battles on this planet. How can this be? Most if not all religions teach that God is Love. If God is Love how is it possible for a man of one religion to kill another man of a different religion in the name of the God of love?

This can only happen based on belief, on a perception of the fact and not based on the fact. This can only happen if we live our life based on our staunchly held beliefs, such as a belief that our religion is the only true religion and our teacher is the only true teacher. It can only happen when we hold fast to our mental concepts, rather than living and acting from an awakened heart, a heart that feels for other human beings, a heart that feels suffering, a heart that has flowered with compassion, tolerance, mercy, magnanimity, peace, joy and love, a heart in which God is alive.

I realize that my Yeshua Magdalena book may push some people's buttons. It will probably challenge certain peoples long held beliefs and conditionings. It is not my desire or intention to annoy people or to make them angry. My only desire is to awaken people's hearts to a deeper perception of truth and love. I welcome you to join me on this ever graceful heart expanding journey.

Chapter One

Introduction to His Story

With over 2000 years of history behind us it is not possible to know with certainty the detailed history of Yeshua² and his wife and spiritual partner Mary Magdalena³.

If we don't even know the truth of a major event in recent recorded history, how can we really know what happened when Yeshua and the Magdalene walked the earth 2000 years ago? That recent event that I just referred to was the infamous World Trade Center bombing of September 11, 2001.

Powerful forces⁴ have hidden the truth of September 11 and powerful forces hid the real story of Yeshua and the Magdalene⁵ 2000 years ago and have continued to hide and distort the truth during the years in between 4BC and today.

The best way for us to really know what transpired in the lives of the great Master and his wife is to have a direct connection with them, be able to communicate with them like we would speak to our closest friend, and get the answers to our questions directly from their lips or telepathically transmitted to our brains or hearts.

This connection only develops from continuous acts of divine Grace that would enable the beneficiary to receive and be able to comprehend the message given by the great Master and his wife, whom Yeshua recognized as the Woman who knew the All and the Apostle to the apostles.

² Yeshua is the name that the Master was known by as he walked the land of ancient Palestine. I don't know when the word Jesus became popular. The Master was recognized as a Prophet of God 700 years later in the Koran where he was called Isa. The Koran is a revelation of God's teachings given to the Prophet Mohammed by the Archangel Gabriel. In Islam (a word meaning surrender) Yeshua is spoken of as 'Ruh Allah' or the Breath of God. He is also recognized in India as an Avatar or incarnation of God. Yeshua was known as Sri Isha while he was still alive travelling and teaching in India. See Cha. 11.

⁴ Let the reader explore Architects & Engineers for 911 Truth by going to their website: <http://www.ae911truth.org/> for guidance in this area.

His story (history) over the last 5000 years of patriarchy is exactly that... it is the male dominated story of the ruling elite. Whatever the position the ruling party that controlled the media wanted us to believe, that was the story we were fed. And this politically correct position would be defended many times to the death of those dissenting.

Neurobiologically dominated by the senses and our identification with them, we have formulated our opinions about the real story of Yeshua and the Magdalene based on many falsehoods that were fed to us by those protecting vested interests. To perpetuate and protect those falsehoods those in power have even resorted to war and killed those who did not hold their belief about the Master and his teachings. As the Holy Master was crucified, along with many of his disciples, so many of the later followers of Yeshua and the Magdalene have been 'crucified' unto death during the Albigensian crusades and at other times in recorded His story.

The second best way of knowing the truth about YeshuaMagdalena⁶ is to use the instrument that humanity has been given by the divine to discern the truth. This is the human spiritual heart⁷ or heart chakra; when our spiritual heart flowers, then our intuition flowers. When our intuition flowers, we can feel the truth inwardly whenever we hear it. The spiritual heart is like a truth meter. God willing, the full development of the human spiritual heart will lead to the direct perception of truth and our ability to directly communicate with Yeshua and the Magdalene.

The third and most common way of knowing is to read what is out there concerning Yeshua and the Magdalene and to notice when your spiritual heart has been stirred by the author's words. This stirring is an indication to you that what you have just taken in rings your truth bell. It's a signal to pay attention and you can safely follow its guidance.

⁶ Written this way the expression YeshuaMagdalena reveals the recognition that the consciousness of the Master was on the same level as the consciousness of the Magdalene and vice versa. In YeshuaMagdalena we have Christ the Logos united with Christ the Sophia. The divine consciousness was expressing itself as the divine masculine through Yeshua and the divine feminine through the Magdalene. Two beings in appearance are one at the highest levels of divine Consciousness.

⁷ From the understanding of subtle anatomy, our physical heart is intimately connected to and governed by our heart chakra (called Anahata in Sanskrit). The full flowering of our heart chakra leads to our direct experience of the unconditional Love of the divine. The Anahata chakra is also the energy center of compassion, mercy, magnanimity, intuition, tolerance, and forgiveness. Recently the science of HeartMath™ has taught that our biological heart has its own brain consisting of around 40,000 neurites (specialized nerve cells), that it has up to 5000 times more magnetic power than our brain and that it has up to 60 times more electrical force than our brain. These qualities of our physical heart reflect our heart chakra's power to integrate and transform our life. Our antaryamin or Higher Sacred Self is seated on the throne of our heart chakra.

About the Author of Yeshua Magdalena

Dr Robert March, BS, ND has been working with students and clients for 39 years assisting them to discover and manifest the gifts they desire to share with others in the world of vibrational healing.

As a teacher, mentor, and practitioner, Dr March has helped in the training of massage therapists, polarity practitioners, sound healers, reflexologist, naturopaths, and other practitioners in the world of complementary and integrative therapies.

Using principals and practices from various healing modalities and spiritual traditions, and especially now, using three most powerful gifts of the Oneness Blessing, the ancient Munay Ki Rites of the Laika, and the Yeshua/Magdalena initiation, Robert has helped thousands of students and clients learn how to access and utilize their own inner healer and their own innate wisdom and divine Presence within.

This has helped his clients and students to lead happier, healthier, more balanced lives themselves and has helped them to gain new skills and the confidence required to reach out and work with their own families, friends and clients on their personal journeys of healing and spiritual growth.

A life of service to the reality of Oneness... the realization that we all come from One Source Consciousness... has been the motivating factor throughout all Robert's adult life. This realization began flowering in this life when he became a student of the Heart Chakra Master, Sri Chinmoy in 1970.

Sri Chinmoy was an avid athlete and a believer in eating food high in life force or prana or subtle organizing energy fields. While his student for 8 years Robert began his study of complementary and integrative healing and he met the Nutrition Master, Dr. Christopher Gian-Cursio, whose diet he has followed for 38 years.

Robert shares that,

"My Higher Self guided me to Santa Fe, New Mexico where I studied with the great pioneer of spiritual and natural healing, Dr Jay Victor Scherer and was initiated in Santa Fe into the Egyptian Sufi Path of Love, Harmony and Beauty.

This eventually led me to the Lotus Feet of the husband and wife team of Oneness Avatars where I became a practitioner of the Oneness Blessing and discovered that the greatest healing power available to humanity is the inner discovery of the power of consciousness to balance, heal, and lift the vibratory level of humanity into the reality of Oneness.

This power and reality of Oneness... that we are all interconnected in the web of unconditional Love and divine intelligence (Light)... has been confirmed over and over again when Robert has worked with clients at a distance, outside the borders of time and space. Distance healing and distance Oneness Blessings work because we are ONE!

I am eternally grateful for the help and guidance that has been gifted to me and to all those who would seek, knock, and ask at the ever flowering door of Grace."
