

Oneness Celebration

Yeshua / Magdalene God / Goddess Initiation

One of the highlights of our Mystical French Adventure for the last three years has been our sacred Yeshua/Magdalene God/Goddess initiation given on the Throne of Isis in the south France. This year this initiation will be given for the first time in South Australia during our Cosmic Oneness Celebration August 15-16, 2009 and during our Bozeman Adventure in Bozeman Montana at Hyalite Lake September 7-11, 2009.

Having gone through a year-long God/Goddess initiation process in 1998/1999 guided by Divina Del Sol in Sedona and Scottsdale Arizona in the Isian/Magdalene lineage established by Lady Olivia Robertson (see an interview with Lady Olivia later in this article), Robert shares the Yeshua/Magdalene initiation to pass on or deepen your inner spiritual connection to this ancient mystery school lineage.

For those who have read Robert's spiritual biography in his book, Bringers of the Golden Ball, you have discovered the 53 year-long journey that continues to unfold in the mystery which connects us all in the lineage of all the God men and women who have come to the earth to show us our true nature.

If we can muster the patience required to watch the journey unfold, we discover the guidance that brings us to the realization of oneness.

In Robert's life the threads of the great tapestry of Oneness have graciously and gradually revealed the connections of unity that so far include Gnostic, Vedantic, Egyptian Chisti Sufi, Native American, Mayan, Aztec, Incan, Australian Aboriginal, and New Zealand Maori facets or aspects.

Although we can not know for sure the outer aspects of this journey that stretch back thousands of years of distorted his-story (history), the inner aspects are known intuitively and immediately and have presented themselves to Robert as intense heart feelings or expansions that come when the Truth presents itself, guised in it's multiplicity of forms.

Take any thread and follow it deeply... it will lead to the truth of Oneness.

The Yeshua/Magdalene God/Goddess initiation will connect you, seemingly for the first time perhaps, or deepen your already established connection, to the beautiful lineage of Yeshua (known in India as Sri Isha) and Mary Magdalene. The Great Avatar and his spiritual partner are still present to anchor the vibration of Unconditional Love, Divine Forgiveness, and Compassionate Action in Love's Service for the establishment of the Kingdom of Heaven (known also as Satya Loka) here on Earth. This vibration of the integration of Peace and Joy will be one of the main hallmarks of the emerging Golden Age (Age of Aquarius, Shift of the Ages, Age of Oneness).

It is possible that in her outward journey that Mary Magdalene physically and spiritually planted the seeds of this integration of Peace and Joy during her healing ministry in the Languedoc region of southern France.

As Mary Magdalene is the Woman who Knows the All, this vibration can be palpably felt as you receive the blessed Yeshua/Magdalene God/Goddess initiation during our Cosmic Celebration and our Bozeman Adventure.

This is our heart's deepest wish for you.

Lady Olivia Robertson, one modern re-establisher of an ancient tradition

Founder of the internationally renowned Fellowship of Isis, and long standing elder of the world wide Goddess community, Lady Olivia was born on Friday April 13th 1917, in London. Of Irish descent Olivia studied at the Grovesnor School of Modern Art in London before embarking on a very creative career as a novelist and artist before deciding to found the Fellowship of Isis in 1976. Now beyond her 90th year, she still tours all over the world and attends the Glastonbury Goddess conference each year. Lady Olivia Robertson has inspired countless millions of people to get in touch with their own personal goddess-centred spirituality.

Please bear in mind that the interview was held 16 years ago in 1993, so some questions and answers may seem a little out of context now. Enjoy!

*On April 29th 1993 I found myself sitting in the offices of Psychic News in central London. I was there to interview Olivia Robertson, co founder of the Fellowship of Isis. She had flown into London for the re-launch of her book The Call of Isis, which had been re-published by Neptune Press. I* took the opportunity to speak with her before the party began.

Alex: Your book The Call of Isis has been described as a psychic autobiography. When did you first hear this call?

Olivia: I would say ever since I was born. You might say that going to the pantomime to see Cinderella, and seeing the fairy godmother throw off her black cloak and revealing herself was my first call, but it is always a secret call, you don't realise it is there. I really didn't think I would be doing all of this. I was a perfectly respectable Anglo-Irish writer. People used to ask if I was writing any more books, and I used to reply, yes I'm doing the Fellowship of Isis, and they used to reply, no, your books! They wouldn't accept it. When I first saw the goddess, or rather, when I use the word Goddess I mean there is a whole hierarchy of beings more evolved than we are, She was made of pure white light. I think in some ways they are connected to ancient chariots that go across the sky. People don't seem to like this idea, but why not? Then I saw the gold lady. She is the one you see when you go to sleep. She had long gold hair and a turquoise blue robe. I believe in the god as well, and i have seen male beings. I just feel that humanity at the moment needs the female aspect.

Alex: The FOI states that anyone can join no matter what ones other religion, creed or background, and more importantly, that they can retain their other allegiances and be a full and active member of the fellowship. How compatible is, lets say mainstream Christianity to the FOI?

Olivia: Well we do have a lot of mainstream Christians as members. We have Tony Grist, the clergyman who writes for the guardian and we have two Roman Catholic monks, one who works in the Vatican, he's a Jesuit, and a Benedictine monk, who actually got us into the Parliament of World Religions. We are the first goddess based religion that has been acknowledged.

They have been all men up to now, nothing but long beards, bald heads and dog collars could be seen. We are going to give them a bit of a surprise I think!

Alex: (Laughing) What made you decide to initially set up the FOI?

Olivia: Looking back I am the most unorganized person. I am an author and a painter. I love solitary meditation. I love parties too, but I do like being on my own. I was guided by the goddess to do it, along with my (late) brother Lawrence who is an ordained clergy man and his late wife Pamela.

Alex: The FOI manifesto states that you have no rules. There are no vows of secrecy or regulations. In fact the FOI is probably the worlds only open occult society. Why did you decide to have this policy?

Olivia: Well we were and still are living in Ireland where Catholics and Protestants are still shooting at each other. This made us feel that we should have an organisation where people could find their own spirituality, there own path. You see people who join seem to have all there own ideas and backgrounds; a Jesuit is going to have all his own ideas, rules and regulations just as a member of an occult order has theirs. Therefore we couldn't have any rules because everyone else has there own! For instance the Nigerian members each have many wives. I got a bit puzzled when I got a letter saying Mr. this and Mrs. that and then a whole lot more Mrs!

(At this point the Tea arrives, and we take a welcome slurp or two...)

Alex: So why do you think the FOI has so many members in Nigeria?

Olivia: Well I think that perhaps Nigeria is more untouched than some other African countries, for instance there are less white settlers, therefore less missionaries to stamp out native traditions. I have no idea where they heard about us, word of mouth I suppose.

Alex: Why did you set up a priesthood in an organisation which appears to be non-hierarchical?

Olivia: We were asked by a lady who wanted to be a priestess. Nearly everything we do is because someone asks us to do it. The FOI is non-hierarchical because we are modern. We just don't like hierarchy.

Alex: The Druid Clan of Dana is one of the more recent formations of the fellowship. Why another Druid order when there are so many already?

Olivia: Because the poor Irish druids who are among the oldest seemed to be totally ignored. So we thought we could do something about this. We felt that although there are druids in Ireland anyway, we could enable something to manifest. My brother and I were initiated by an aged hermit called Mr. Fox. He actually saw the ancient race of Ireland in vision. He introduced me to the Sidhe. I was given an initiation by this holy man who lived by the river Slaney at an ancient site. It was totally overgrown and people wouldn't go there because they were afraid.

Alex: When was this?

Olivia: When I was a child of about 10, during the 1930s. Later on I began to see a white lady who told me that her name was Dana. At the time I didn't want to give her a name but she told me three times, so I had to accept it! She is queen of the whole earth. I am very against the racism of the Celts. I have a theory that the white race is going downhill rapidly, and feels it's being submerged. People actually pay Americans to adopt Irish children because they are not black. They actually try to bribe Irish mothers because there children are regarded as white Celts.

Alex: Yes exactly! Racism has no place at all, ever in any religion or indeed anywhere! People need to become more tolerant and inclusive. On a lighter note my last question is this: what would you say a typical day at Clonegal Castle would be?

Clonegal Castle, foundation centre for the Fellowship of Isis

Olivia: Well I get up at 5.30 am every day and at 6.30 I go into the Temple of Isis and anoint my brow. Here I meditate until 8.30. Then in the evenings, again from 6.30 until 8.30 we have mediation in the temple. I feel these attunement times are important. Many people attune with us from all over the world at these times.

Alex: Thank you Olivia, it has been a joy to meet you.

Special thanks to Ronnie Hudson, Priestess of Isis, for encouraging me to re-publish this long out of print interview.

Yeshua/Magdalone God/Goddess Initiation on the Throne of Isis, June 22, 2009

In their highly recommended book, The Power of the Magdalene... the Hidden Story of the Women Disciples, authors Stuart Wilson and Joanna Prentis were able to research a much truer story of the Magdalene through a collection of outer and inner gifts. They were running the Starlight centre in the west of England and meeting wonderful presenters whose focus was healing and the expansion of consciousness. Joanna trained as a past life therapist and began a whole cycle of past life regression work. And, through a past life recall, they connected with an Angelic being called Alariel.

From Chapter 21 of their book, Alariel relates the following information:

The real significance of the Magdalene is her role as an empowered and enlightened woman. She stands forth as a continuing inspiration to women all over the world.

Your world is now moving towards a state where each one of you is becoming your own sovereign, and your own priest or priestess. So where will that leave organizations which have provided these functions for you in the past?

In considering these things, the key question is where authority resides. The teachings of Yeshua put authority firmly within the transformative power of the Spirit. This is clearly reflected in one of the angelic summaries of his teachings:

The Spirit of God,
working its miracles of change within the heart,
becomes the ultimate authority,
the agent of transformation,
and the arbiter of Truth.
Within the group around Yeshua,
the clearest carrier of that Truth was Mary Magdalene.

Alariel continues:

The Power of the Magdalene does not diminish or wither with the passing of time: she is the Wayshower, embodying the energy and wisdom of the Sacred Feminine and inspiring others to do the same.

... Mary Magdalene and Yeshua demonstrated a new kind of partnership between two Advanced Beings. Their work on anchoring the energy of Love into the matrix of the Earth laid the foundations for all future expansions of the Light on this planet. And their partnership provides a new model to inspire human beings to reach up into higher frequencies of understanding and collaboration.

Through this new model, you begin to glimpse a better way forward, with man and woman working together in a greater harmony where each respects the different talents and abilities of the other. When you begin to absorb and act upon this principle, it will inevitably lead to a rethinking of the whole basis of relationship.

... The partnership of Yeshua and Mary Magdalene reflects the ultimate balance of Father-Mother God which lies at the heart of the Universe.
